WHEN CONTROL THE MARKET. The Condition of the Farmer Discussed by the Mississippi Valley Wheat

Mississippi where assoubled here to-day to or gamize for future act on Wulter N. Allen, it usident of the Farmers Federation, called the meeting to order and made alen thy speech on the needs of the far mera. He said if the larguers would organise like the manufac urers to control production and regulate the output in the public market, they sould in commen with all producers set the price on their own treadquets irresp, etting of over production or the power of the Liverpool market. The unavoidable ted et or of the present system is to bring the price down to the lowest limit at which the food supply can be produced. In order to avert impeading, run, we must reverse this order of things. The power to establish the value of our brist i of American wheat and one barre, of miss power is to be found in the centralized agency of the Robert of the largue of the contralized agency of the Robert of the contralized with the contralized agency of the Robert of the largue of the result of the contralized with the contralized a. Portland's exposition this year at reasses that of San Francisco. A San Francisco man has acknowledged it, and everybody up here feels good about it.

Hon Butter will write a history of his own times in which he proposes to do particular justice to his encuries. It may not have any particular value as history, but it will be interesting reading.

The town of Orendo, in Douglas county, Wr., has received its first woman inhabitant. It was a grand event in the history of the town, and there was considerable re-joking and jollification.

An un-country paper tolegraphed the Walla Walla Statesmun on election day to send it 200 words of election news. The Statesman replied: "No need of 200 words— everything gone to hell."

The Book Island road is having trouble United States troops prevent the building of the line through a certain section of Indian territory. Little enough attention is paid to keeping the promises made to the Indians, and it is gratifying to note an occasional spasm of honor on the part of the white

The wet season in California is on in ful. force. The Sacramento has risen mineteen feet, and vast quantities of wheat lying seked on the levees are in danger of being swept away. A little more rain for the up per Willametre, and a little less for the Sac ramento, would be more agreeable at Over $22,000,000 will have been expended in two years, by the close of the year 1890, in the work of reconstructing and building up,our navy. Secretary Whitney, who was the bright, shining ctar of the Cleveland ad-ministration, began the work well, and in the same manner it will be carried to completion by Secretary Tracy.

The Canadian government has simed a The Canadian government has simed a blow at American shipping in Pacific coast and Paget sound waters. Freight sent in bond from Canada to British Columbia through the United States, must be tran-shipped in British vessels, thus practically giving the Canadian Pacific stemmers a poly of comet business.

According to the Corvellis Times, a wild deer ran through the agricultural college farm the other afternoon, and passed within twenty feet of the durmitory, where lifty or more students stood watching it. The Eugene-Register says that deer, are coming out of the mountains a month ear for than State's Attorney Longnecker, of Illinois, is too much given to making statements that the public will be curprised in a day or two by the magnitude of the sensational develop sents which he is holding in reserve. This namer of conducting the prosecution of the surderers of Dr. Cronin is weak and irivo-ous. A wise man does not play the part of a boy whistling to keep his courage up.

The locomotive engineers, now in session at Doever, will make a great mistake if they full to re-elect Arthur grand chief. The at congth and prosperity of the order is due in a great measure to this one man, and his ervatism, which has been the safe guard of the organization, is undoubtedly ousles to bring about his overthrow.

If the murderer Gibbs is in hiding among friends, there is now some hope of his being surremlered to the hands of justice, since the reward offered by the citizens of Portland bas reached the considerable sum of $1300 Should be be making his may through Baat-ern Oregon, there are equally good hopes for his capture, since every officer o' the law-all over the country, and many private citzeus, will be on the qui vite to earn the

The federal courts have sustained the officers of the state of Maryland, who en-forced the law against dredging for oysters at prohibited times, and in so doing fired into and cank several boats. The owners of the boats brought suit for damages but not the boats brought suit for damages out hot even a technicality could be found to support their preposterous claim. As well might a burglar, being frightened away from a bank, bring suit for the tools he left lying in front of the sufe.

The La Grande Gazatte says: "The report tion as receiver of the United States land ffice at La Grande is without foundation. onace at La Grande is without reindation. It is true, however, that he expects soon to be relieved, and is making preparations to visit Culifornia for the benefit of Lis health a soon as his official duties are brought to an end." Outhouse belongs to thir class of which it may be said that occasionally one has to die, but none ever resigns.

General Manager Towne may be right-when be says no more trains are needed be-ween Portland and San Francisco, but he has no idea of the growth of the Leat pustenger traffic in Oregon. As far south as Salere, and some three even to Albany, the cars are too crowded to furnish seats to all first-class passengers. Especially is this the cape on the overland express trans which leaves Portland in the evening. The baik of the travel seeks this train not morely because it goes faster than the local train, but because it leaves. Portland at night. What is needed for the better accommodation of the Oregon traveling public is a local train from Engene arriving in Portland every morning about ten o'clock and leaving between four and five in the afternoon. Tols would take Limost the entire has no idea of the growth of the lacat past poon. A REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRAT.

Covernor David B. Hill, M. New York, is traveling about the equator dramming up support for his candidacy for the democratic presidential nomination in 1832. He began he quest appropriately enough, in the part of the country which must be the stronghold and hope of the democratic party to al time, and, sagacionery enough, in that part of the south whose seeid and industrial part of the south whose seeds and industrial sobultions prepare it for sympathy with the seconomic views of that wing of the party Courreter Hill is paguely understood to be reason that it is say to comprehen he way the manifectual seeds of Allanta chould prepare and ovailable for the deglocation to all who was created by the New York for and appropriate by Saymel I Bandel The sponsored by Samuel J. But Gov. Hill has other grounds upon which to base his hope of the democratic nomination than his identification with the Randall high-tariff wing of the democratic party and his acceptability to the manufacturers of the new South. He is a deservedly popular and distinctly representative demo-crat. Teking the democratic party by and large, he represents more positively and Jailbanly transverage opinion and feeling Than any popular leader it has hed since Horalio Segmont: The proble with recent demonstic haders is that, they have been; too good for the party, every nade; with ideas the average democrat holds in contempt and with scruples he is wholly unable to comprebend. PROVERES AND SLANG.

There are but few of jest popular proverbs (those origin can be definitely ascertained. We are not to suppose when it field proverbs used by old writers that such writers were their authors, even though we can trace the proverbs no further back. Many others have come to human lips and pens nobody more when nor where; and most indeed have no righ of their reginning. But every prover of general currency embedies totall, y chamman experience and window, and hence its perennial freshness and immortality. It often happens that the provers has nony forms, and the correctness of the form is frequently a matter of dispute. question. A superficial outsider would be that in time of peace the recruits obtained are generally foreigners, or wayward, tat-tered prodigals of American stock, who, unwilling to pursue steady employments in respectable fluiditial callings, have to choose between standard presented into by their with the almostones of the army. If they present physiological or mental evidence of coinfirmed incorder they are re-jected by the redditing officir, but if they are physically and mentally sound, and are not known to have led a life of crime, these shiftless fellows are of course accepted. They have the mental and moral moods of their "tramo" life still dinging about them, and the moment they begin to feat the press-ure of military discipline and the irksome duliness of gatrison life, they desert. For the sanctity of contracts they have at out as much reverence as great numbers outside the army; who break a contract if they think peril of some legal punishment.

During times of actual war and hardship

During times of account war and assuming military life is riose a creeable to the soldier than the monotony of army service in thing of profound peace. In our great civil war men were siways glac, save in very severe weather to 'go on picket,' preferring it to the drill and dudinoss of the camp, An order to march was welcome, as it meant a change of scene, a sense of excitement and impending danger. I haptitoday a retiment, that gets an order tors, cleaned of station is generally, so far as the men are concorned. pleased with the prospect of removal. They have grown fired of their life at one post, and only the trainfair fit such as part of the country. The army it stationed chiefly the country. The transfer to another part the country. The proving parts of the country where the opportunities for a fairly bright and industriens follow to like the himself as soldiers desert—the wonder is that sumitering officers, who have waited tong for nem tion, do not more frequently than at pros-put resign and take their chance, of getting on in civil life. Given a condition of war acre expressiveness.

As prover be come from the life of a people obey express the experience and set forth the harmoteristics of the people from whom harmoteristics of the people from whom both officers and near despite the certific hardships of compaign life, are better contacts of the contact of the people stock of proverbs of its own. It some countries the stock is meager; in others very full, But there excless proverbs that are common to many nations—a fact due to the didring characteristics of different peoples.

There are, however, some proverbs that army life in time of peace must become in-tolerable to men of active, outdoor, extless energy of mind and brily. If the officer is a man of intellectual tastes and accommission ments army lif. and its con parative hisure in time of peace is agreeable and improving for he can realland virte on professional subjects; he can seen and himself with concerd licerature, but y selecte and try preferantiarity with modern languages; but it he is a mero rugged, robust correction of ther, with more tests for the practice than for the the theory of the art of wer, adighter, and executive worker rather than a thinire and n military student, the army in time (i peace for a single man must be an irlianne

If army life becomes monotonous and tedious for the officer, with his larger liberty, his larger opportunities for recreation, etc., what must it be to the restless natures in the ranks, where the sense of restraint is more severely felt, where the opporfunities for recreation are few and with-out much variety in their nature and character?

Army life is also see offered to a studie man. in the ranks, and we believe it is not seldom very odious to bright men who are not in the ranks. Army life in Germany gives a powerful impotus to emigration to America, and deserters are common here from all armies in the world. Arbuckle, the famous cornet player, was a deserter from the Eng-lish army. When gold was discovered in Chifornia desertions from the army and navy were so common that the men sent out to arrest describes never came back, but deseried too. The rapid growth of our states west of the Mississippi, where our troops are chiefly stationed, probably has stimulated soldiers to desert, something as the old gold fever did in 1848-19. In 1884 no less than 42 per cent. of the recruits enfisted deserted; in 1885 it was 43 per cent. in 1865, 42 per cent., and in 1867 and 1889 38 per cent. That is, there had been no less than 18,000 desertions within five years, or four desertions for Every ten recruits culisted.

cavalry, in a recent essay, tries to answer the question, "What causes descrition in the army?" The army is usually well fed; it is not over worked at manual labor or "fatigue duty;" cases of tyranny by officers or non-conumissioned officers are too rare to be ac-cepted by way of an explanation. It is not lack of education, for the desector is generally a well-educated man; It is not insufficient pay, for hi addition to his $13 per mointi the soldier receives board, louging, clothing and medical attendance, and his pay is constant, whether in sickness of to beatth. He buys his luxuries cheap of the commissary; he finds a reading-room and a good iou is, that at the and of six months the soldier is discontented because the monotony of his life never ends; he is forbidden to seek recreation after his day's duty is done; if he strays beyond the post, he must be back at 9 P. M. to answer his name at tattoo. This our army critic would abolish and substitute a "check roll call" at 10:30 or 11 P. M. His uniform makes him an outcast when he seeks recreation; he is unserupuboundy described as a druntiard, or, as this army lieutenant says, 'His life is a monotonous present, with but slight hope of promotion; restrained at home and slandered abroad." Men desert because of this monotonous life, its unnecessary restraints and the low social position of an entisted man.

Mayor DeLeabmust is fully warranted in administering the rebuke to the city council implied in his remark relative to a new city rali site quoted in The Oregonian of yesterday. Suitable provision enould have been made for a city built site years ago. De-lay is expensive in these cases. The land requived for this purpose will cost three times as much now as it would have when the ankject was first broached. The penalty for de-lay will be increased every year by the rise in the value of real estate. NO CITY HALL OF THE PLAZA The Suprema Court's Decision Ess. Encoked the Plan in the Head.

The supreme court's decision has truly knocked the wind out of the plan to build a city hall on the south plans block. City Attorney Adams thought there was some hope left, but it looks as the war (rying to put a silver lintug on a very cark cloud. His hope was in overcoming the objection of the court, providing the decision was based upon the assumption that the plans was alimply deficated for ornismental purposes. The decision was more comprehensive than he expected. It was additioned to Cities.

cark cloud. His hope war in overcoming the objection of the court, providing the decision was based upon the sesumption that the plaza was samply de'tested for orimountal purposes.

The decision was more comprehensive them he expected. It was delivered by Chief Justice Thister, Justice Strahau conjurering, Justice Strahau conjurering, Justice Loud expressing no opinion. It was held, first, that is there was a dominon interest amount line original layers out of the fown and the decisation had along the court without contradiction for more than their six years, the decisatory set of D. H. Lownsdale should be regarded as the act of all. Hereis the point if they get away with City Atsoracy and that a grant way with City Atsoracy and that a general decisation of the hard for public square, would not be suithful to a public aquare, would not be suithful to public any mers implied that they were to be enjoyed by the public at large said could not righthully be appropriated by the city quithorities to the use of the city in the management and conduct a comounic afficia.

"Are wat to have a city hait!" was asked of a coincilment session.

"Nor this year. It is my bolled that nothing much will be done in the matter until the legislature meets in 1981. The charter authorizes the house of bonds to the amount of $125,000. With one of the plazas, which would east as activities in make much including the second put up a creditable hallow, the asset, we could put up a creditable hallow, the second put up a creditable hallow will have been decreased by the second put up a creditable hallow. People generally favor a fairty central site for a city iall, and the cone to be selected will likely not be farther north than A street, farther south han a larket on further west than Seventh. Many mostle say the northern and south boundaries. About the Oak and Mein streets. The Van Frihagh property on Tweighth and Washington streets, which it was proposed to buy several months and the est half for $55,000, or the north nather of the est half for $55,000, or the south quarter of it for $15,000, or the south quarter. Forces Antarrock's Last Effect.—George W. Anderson, the young forcer who was sentenced to three years in prison on Wednesday, churched astraw to save himself. After he had been sentenced ho pottlemed Judge Stantinck for a writ of abbeas corpus complaining that he was liberally restrained of his liberty. Judge Shattark was not of that opinion, and promptly denied the application.

So the December 1

So the Diamond Was Found—The diamond lost at the exposition building Wednesday night has been recovered. It was found by two young men from the country, who did not know what the value of ilyass. Folkerman Woods accidentally overheadd these persons conversing on the street about their find, and they give it up and took the reward offered.

took the reward offered.

PERTY OF CANVARIACE DUTKE.—A gentieman who has been down to Sauvie's island shooting states that the can was lack ducks are "in" in force. He caw more than a thousand of them, but they did not by his way. A farmer on the island states that a number of swan and canvasback ducks raised broods on the sland this season, which is something unusual.

aomething unusual,

Roffs for the Warrendale Hartmery.—Fish Commissioner Campbell has shipped 250,000 salmon eggs to the branch batchery at Warrendale, and another lot will be shipped as soon as trays can be obtained. The commissioner feels that he is under obligations to the O. R. & N. Co. for stopping fist tash at Warrendale to leave the eggs at the station.

THE END OF THE CASE .- City Attorney Adams The END OF THE CASE.—City Attorney Adams and resterday that he would not file an answer to the suit of William Church, ir., against the city to enjoin it from building a city bail on the south pleza block. This then is the end of the case, and the supreme court's order to enter the prayer of Mr. Church will be cheeged.

The S. S. Gro! W. Blden will sail for Alaska and way ports, Sunday 27th inst. Preight will be received at O. R. Ch. Ch. steamship dock from Saturday months. The statement that she would not call at Totland this trip was mudel in error.

AN INTERESTING SUBJECT

A great deal of information relating to the states of 'Latin America," their commerce, industries, trade, productive caracity and probable development, has been called forth through the discussions that have resulted from the assembling of the congress of American states at Washington. Perhaps the fallest of all contributions to this in formation is that furnished by William E formation is that furnished by while me Curtis, a special agent of the state department, who, in a book of 340 pages goes ever the whole subject of trade and ransportation between the United States and Spanish America, and incidentally gives an elaborate statement of the products of the branish American states, of the present status of their industries, and of the prospects of further development of their productive en ergies A full account of the course volume and general methods of the trade of these states is also presented, so that it way be seen just what conditions our people will be compelled to meet in their efforts to establish or increase their own trade with the states of Latin America.

The total population of Spanish America including the West Indies and Brein Mr. Curtis estimates a over 50 000 000 Cf these not over 500 000 are savage Indiana, a) that nearly every inhabiting of Central and South America is a contributor, directly or indirectly, to the exports of the country in which he lives and to a degree a concumer of imported merchandise. The exports are raw materials, the natural or cuitivated products of the several countries, the im-ports are manufactured articles from Europe and the United States Wherever there are manufactories, as in Mexico (su termala, Chill and Brazil, the local dem und is in variably in excess of the product and the importing merch nts are called upon to supply the deficiency But the racchanical ries are so meager and their output so small, that they sourcely enter into trade calculations and add but an atom to the wealth and commerce of the countries exception however is noted in the case of breadstuffs Chili has driven the flour of the United States off the west coast of South America, and now supplies Peru, Ectudor and Bolivia The miliers of our Pacific states are also beginning to feel the compe-tion at Panama and along the west coast of Central America, and probably will soon lose all that lucrat ve market — Till recently the Argentine Republic was an importer of breadstuffs, but the agricultural development of the pampas is so rapid and extensive that the present product not only supplies the local demand, but furnishes an a inual plus, valued at $14,560 000, for export. The same is true of Uruguay which has also be come an exporter of wheat and flour and has enormous productive capacity Curtis tells us that the time is not tant when these countries will not only sup piv the whole demand for brendstuffs in the West Indies and bouth America, but will en ter into active competition with other countries for the European market, and he thirks that the river Plate valley is more to be feared than India, Russia or Australia as a competitor with the United States in breadstuffs and provisions. The possibili ties of that great region are unmeasured, its productive area is greater than that of the Mississippi valley and its transportation facilities are so convenient that vessels from Europe can literal y enter the wheat fields The advantages are described as ainular to those we would enjoy if ocean vessels could load at Pittsburg K msas City or St Phal The river Plate offers a more ex ended sys-tem of unobstruckéd navigation than any other stream in the world Ocea i vegesle of twenty four feet draught can find water enough the whole year at a distance or 1000 miles from its mouth, and vessels of sixteen to twenty feet can go on the Paste 2700 miles into the continent. The navigation of the Amazon is observed by natural costa-cles which it will be difficult to zemove but the Ormoco is open to large vesse a for long

It is often asserted that we are handles pred by our protective tariff system, but Mr Curtis shows that this has no influence cures snows that this has no innuence upon the trade. It is character sed as mere ignorance to assert that the duties iniposed upon imported goods prohibit us compete with the manufacturers of Europe in all the articles we produce and more over the constant infringement of our pat ents and forgery of our trade marks prove the popularity and superiority of American goods Yet the fact that we have no the means of transport, and that intercourse with those countries is limited, leads natur-ally to lack of knowledge on the part of our manufacturers and merchants of the want: of the markets in the Latin Ame ican

It is plain that if we are to increase our trade with those countries, we plust meet our comnetitors with steamship lines such lines can be a-tablished and Liuin tained only by such systems of subsidies as our competitors en ploy. This is one of the great questions new before the country for the consideration and decision and the dis cuesions to which the international con gress at Washington gives rise ate bringing atrong I ght to be ir upor the whole subject It is very probable that this conference will be the means of riducing our engless to take project action or support of site in ship

SOME OF THE FIGURES.

Official returns as published in TRE ORE CONIAN yesterday, of the late election whereby Washington was admitted as a Sovereign state of the Union and furnished with a full complement of state officers present an array of figures for the study of the curious, furnish comparitive data that may be useful to prohib tionists and woman suffragiats in future cun paigns and correct what the vote provis to baye been an error in the estimate of many, it at the two ques tions were identical in interest and were Working together

These are a few of the incongruities shown by the returns, which i' they prove anything show that earnest thought upon the issues thus brought before the people has been confined chiefy to the teaders or ngitators of the respective movements the misses dashing at them at random and merely because an oppo tun ty to do so was presented to them

THE LEAR'S PROBEBLICK AFCORD The honest, conscientions advocates of prohibition as the best means of dealing with the liquor truffle can secree y feel on couraged with the result of the voting upon that question during the present year. Five of the old states have voted upon constitu tional prohibition, and the adverse majority in each instance was inexpectedly large. Three of the four new states of the North west also presented probabilitory clauses to their constitution two of which were defeated New Hampshire a state whorein probibi

Massachu etts voted in recording an increased May recording an increased majority against prohibition, Pennsylvania followed thrown against that policy in that ever thrown against that pone, state a few days later Rhode Island, where prominion and been on probation so to speak, for two years, defeated the proposition to continue it by a vote of three to one. Connecticut came on later giving as emphatic a majority against it as any of the others. The combined majority against prohibition in these are states was 22-2503. The gravest aspect of the defeat to the friends of that no layer is the fact. feat to the friends of that policy is the fact that each of those states had ried probibition and had found it detective as a temper ance measure.

CHAIRMAN GOWEY ON THE SITUATION Re Thinks Ex Delegate Allen is the Birongest

Man in Eastern Washington. Sohn F Gowey, chairmen of the republican state control committee of Washington arrived in the city from Coumpla yesterday and is at the Esmonia His wite accompanies him. A reporter taiked to Mr Gowey last opening to got the latest features of the senatorial situation in BACT FREE 1

Au dement of uncer'sin's hangs over the contest replied Mr Govey as a majority of the members of the leg sinture are independent men and are adverse to making any pledges or prom isea in advance of the meeting of the legislature. I believe Mr. Allen has a stronger following that anyone cand date in Eastern Washington but perhaps not stronger than the field. From what I have heard I should 11 tige that the leading candidates of the Eastern district are as follows. In the order named John B Allen S C Hyde, Thomas II. Brents and Judge Turner In Western Washing on these agency.

hanners John B Allen > C Hyde, Thomas II. Hennis and Judge Turner in Western Washing ton there are only two aggressive candidates—ex Governor Squire, of Statile, and Walter J Thompson of Jacoma. The contest is a generous rivalry between Seattle and Tacoma as cities, and between the cand dates as men General Sprague of Jacoma has also a following but his absence from Washington and his retueal to press his candidacy has not made him as prominent as he would have been otherwise.

With the large mejority that the republicans have in the legislature—hinety three on joint ballot—the party will be hell accountable for what ever may be unto in he way of legislatio; and the responsibility of abapting the first state got enument rests almost wholly with the republican party. From my knowledge of the men who have been elected to full the important state offices and as members or the legislature, I am confident that they fully reader this responsibility, and while thouse it is not will be conservative it will be for the benefit of the people Our new state government will be conderted recovery. benefit of the people Our new stell suggests of the source of the people Our new stell suggests of the source of t system which was adopted by the convention his Would-Be Captors Bave a Spirited Time, but the Knight of the Jimmy Gets Away-Albina Happenings.

On Wednesday night several citizens in Stephens addition had an experience that they will not soon forget and which gave them a ner-yous block from which they have not yet entirely recovered. At about 10 o'clock Mr. Win. Boscow, o't the firm of Baseow & Co., who keep the greery store on I street, was poring over his recount books to see how much the firm had gair of in the day's transaction, dressed in an airy costume preparatory to retiring for the night, when tap tap went a footfail on the roof above him.

Visions of an attempted robbery flashed through Visions of an attempted robbery flashed through his mind which were reasonable enough, considering the number of hard characters prowling around, and he resolved not to yield up the cash box or combination to the safe without a struggle, so I c artised himself with an immense tolt's pisiol, and then made tracks for Tom Payne's saloon to recure assistance. Mr. Payne, being willing to tack the burgher, armed himself with a billiard cue, a pistol and a sealing indeer, and strode out with as much gusto as Don Quirote when he tacks the property was still further reinforced by E. Bowkin and Mert Burgow.

The burgher was supposed to be on the roofs of the row of buildings west from the drug store. He could be heard plain enough by the party below, who were somewhat nervous about going up after him as they feared the might be Glibbs, and one of the brave posse decined he saw two eyes claring at him from the roof like coals of fire. Several others had collected around to watch the burgiar caught.

inally Payne placed his scaling ladder against wall, cocked his pistol, took his belt, and one Finally Pavne placed his scallys laction against the wall, cocked his patto, took his belt and one in his teeth, commended his sand to he patton as the wall, cocked his patto, but he had been as the patton as the man and the knees knocking top charger mounted the ladder. He reached the top and surveyed the roof for an instant. He saw something, but could not make out what it was. Then, turning, he whispered in hoarse tones to the shivering contingent in the street below: "Boys, it's fibbs, and he's coming!"

At that moment there was a flash in the air and a crash of boards, and the burglar had actually jumped from the roof. The four mon armed with pistals scattered and enquered to take a shot at the burglar, but fulled, because every attempt they made to get near him resulted in their getting further away.

A barker who keeps a shop in the same block heard the racket, and went out to ree what the motter was. As he opened the back door he saw a white cat jump from the roof and alight on some boards mar by, causing quitte ne rash; and this explains the presence of the burglar on the roof and the giarting eyes.

RECEPTION TO KLOEK MERSICK.

RECEPTION TO MIDER MERGICA.

The reception tendered Elder R. M. Messick, the new Christian minister, Thursday night by the members of the church, at the chapel, on Teath and J streets, was a success. There was a go d attendance, and the very best of feeling prevaled.

To th and I streets, was a success. There was a go do attendance, and the very best of feeling provated and the opening Rev. David Wetzell, of the Christian church in Fordland, srose and made the address of welcome in eloquent and pointed words. He urged the church to stand by the new minister and "hold up his hands on all occasions." He illustrated his point in this way: "The church is tike a wagon going up a hill. The minister is at the tougue guidding and pulling, and the church members are at the wheels pushing. As the wigon goes on up the hill, the minister notices he has to pull harder and goes slower. Finally his unable to make any progress, and then hetuens and tooks behind him. Everyhood is on the wagon, and he has been pulling the entire load." He urged upon the members never to shoulder the load on to the minister, and his words found a hearty response from the East Periland church.

Lev. Messick responded to the welcome in fitting langrange, and stated he had come to work, and desired the hearty co-operation of all members in church work.

A bountiful hunch had been prepared, which was partaken of with relish by all.

When Rev. Messick arrived here he had ainst at the dupot when he was getting off the train, and he sustellned some painful injuries, boing unable to preach the following Sundey. Although not entirely well, he is in late health, and will agon bring his family from beliem. He is he chirch as stranger here, having preached in he Christian at lavorite.

OVERNOR PENNOTEN'S PRESENT

As Liberati was about to reply, denoral Kapus interrupted him and said "His excettency Silvester Pennoyer, governor of Oregon, has requested me to present to you this token of his high appreciation of you as a man, a musical director and a composer' The gift was a richly chased solid gold match box, insertbed as lollows from Gavernor Pennoyer to A. Liberati was evidently somewhat at eless to reply, being very much affected. He said in effect me at most buyond the power of expression. If I do not render adequate thenks it is not because the spirit is lacking but the command of language. I have played before many andlences but our tainly before none in the United States more tribudy and appreciative kinan I have found in Profitant. Washington has her great unknown land, like the interior of Africa. The country shatm by the Olympio mountains, which includes an area a nout 2000 miles square to the state of the state o ble the interior of Africa. The country shaft in by the Olympic mountains, which indicates at a reas a rout 2000 miles square has never, to the passive knowledge of old residents of the territory been troiden by the foot of man, white or Indian. These me untains use from the level country within the uto fifteer miles of the Strats of San Juan de Puca in the north, the Pacific ocean in the west 'Jood's canal in the east, and the basis of the Quantuit lake in the south, and fising to a hight of 6000 to 8000 feet shut in a vas unexplored area. The lutium baye never penetrated it for their rightions sky that it is imhalited by a very liefee tribe which none of the coast tribes dated molest. Though it is improbable that sinh a tribe could have existed in this mauntain country without their presence be on ing known to the white men no man his ever aspertained that it did not exist. White men too, have only vague accounts of any white man having ever passed though this country for investigation of all the charps of travelers has invariably payed that they have only traversed its outer dogs.

The most generally accepted theory in regad to this country is that it consists of graat walleys stretching from the inward slopes of the mountains to a great central bath. This theory is supported by the fact that although the country wound has abendant rain, and clouds constantly hang over the mountain tops all thestreams flow in, towards the four points of the compass ar ineignificant and rise only on the outward slopes of the range, none appearing to drain the great area shut in by the mount it is This fact appears to support the theory that the streams flowing from the mountains rise or that the streams flowing from the mountains rise or that the streams flowing from the mountains rise or that outward slopes it must have a subterraneam outlet into the ocean, the bigate, or the Sound. There are great discarders in store for some of Washington's explorers.

Corn-Quiet demand fair THE BUFFAIO IN OREGON

Further Testimony Relating to the Presence of the Bison in This State

Further leatimony Reletant to the Presence of the Braon in this State

Walls Walls Statesman

The fact that a writer in an Pastern paper recently bil asserted that there never has any buffalo West of the Rocky mo at one has given rise to a discussion and the question can now be definitely settled. A writer in The Organowia, states that in 187 the remains of a buffalo in an excellent state of preservation were plowed up in a lief on Newsome creek, Crook county Gregon. We have not the slightest doubt out that the gen tiernam in quasion fells the truth for we have ourself seee nections of skulls with buffalo horns attached to their plowed up on Engle creek, near Powder river. In Eastern Oregon and have handled of ser that have been resurrected ut var io is times. Furthermore in 187 white mining it that section we talked with Ex Gavernor Cale who result of near the whore such on Single creek and was one of the very first men who set foot on Oregon soil and he stated hat when he hirst can be to Oregon he fialo shi, existed but were jetting scarce and that the last one was killed by the father of the present New Leric chief Joseph on Birni'r ver'l 1847 (overnor's) le further stated if at in those day, the trappers belonging to the fur companies of the country for a buffalo hum and the meat would be dried and, rought back to the fort for white use. Two years afterward during the linnock was as we were ridding on the slope of Hig Camas prairie in Alt irea county Idaho we picked up a well preserve buffalo existed in Fastern Oregon within the last forty years and it is a question that should be settled We have no doubt but this call they have a wear will be existed in Fastern Oregon within the last forty years and it is a question that should be settled we have no doubt but this call they have a was not and in finite it is to be hoped it at fair specimens will be irreceived as momentione of the past.

THE INTERSTATE WHEAT GROWERS

Addresses, Made Before the Convention Fron Trade Resolutions Adopted.
St Louis Det 24—At the Interstate Wick Growers convention in St. Louis Babert Lindebloom chairman of the Wheat Speculators made a speech in which he gave the speculators side of the wheat question. He said that the menopolists had teight society a lesson that would in time make monopoly impossible. That lesson was the lesson of co operation. The lesson taught by trusts was co-operation. There was no foundation for the cry about over production. In Sec years while the production of wheat decreased 25 per cent. The peaker then weak on to show that there had been no over production in other campiles.

Which are now being made n Pasco is a worder to those who have rot been in Pasco for the last month.

The noise of the nammer and the buzzing of he saw are heard all over the place.

Even the old pioneers have canght the feve; so has the Northern Pacific Ra'lway, Company, who are expending large sums in building sidetracks, roundhouses, etc.

More than $60,000 will be spent every month in and about Pasco for he next yea:

Over $32,000 worth of lots have been sold with building clauses, thus forcing buyers to build to supply a grand demand for houses and stores.

ing Artesian Wells. GOLD DISCOVERY CONTROVERSY

A Little Child That Crossed the Continent Alone-The I amaged Kenilworth Rold to a Malzo Ship Bulder.

Presso, Cal., Oct. 25.—Boring artesian wells in the country a little south of here, brings to light some queer facts and curtosities in several of the wells. Some of them sent considerable natural, inflammable gas and there is a well near Tulve lake where it is said coffee can be made from the heat furnished by the gas contained in it. Well borers working on a farm of Charles Lamberson near Tulare lake, brought up pieces bores working on a tank berron near Tulare lake, brought up pieces of petrified wood with their augers when at a depth of a thousand feet. How it cathe there is a matter for conjecture. A gentleman living in Kera county was recently surprised by inding several small fishes in a trough where water ran out of an artisian well located on his ranch. As first he supposed that some one was trying to play a loke on him. He took the fish out of the trough, but his surprise knew no bounds when next morning he four d quite a number of the finny tribe swimning around. There was but one way to account for their ber of the firsty title swimning around. There was but one way to account for their being there. They had come up out of the artesian well. An examination of the fish by different persons resulted in their being promounced of the species that is to be found in the Owens river country situated atmost directly on the opposite side of the Sierra Revada mountain range.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—It will be remembered that on October 4 Thr Obecc Shan published an article headed, "A claim that Charles Bennett first discovered gold in Callpublished an article headed, "A claim that Charles Bennett first discovered gold in Callfornia." Some days later the West Side, published at Independence, Or., commenting upon the article, asked the question, "Why mould a menument be erected to the memory of James W. Marshall as first discoverer of gold in Callfornia?" Theodore Hittell, who has probably given to the world the most reliable compilation of Callfornia statistics that has ever been published, says the statement that Charles Bennett was the discoverer of gold in this state, was entirely moorrest. Bennett was working at the time as a carpenter for Captain Statistics that has a carpenter for Captain Statistics and marshall was working at the time as a carpenter for Captain Statistics at a mill on American river, where gold was found. Marshall found some small magets on the bank and concluded they were gold. He showed the neighbor of the showed the notigets to Bennett and told him his suspicions, but Bennett declared them in an old rag, and a few days after went to Fort Sutter, where they tested them with acid and by weight, and the value of the precious motal was thus determined. Therefore the sted of Callfornia. Hittell says the presence of Charles Bennett was only an accidental circumstance.

The Extraordinary Duel Recently Fought in New Mexico.

MEDIEVAL BARBARITY RIVALED

A Mexican and an Indian Vic With Each Other in a Blood-Ourdling Exhibition of Cruelty and Stoiciem.

ARBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 25.-From Taos City comes the particulars of a most singular duel. It appears that in order to settle an old grudge, an Indian settler named Wankenshoe, and a wealthy Mexican named Juan Vereja, repaired to a place about six miles from the town of Taos, just at the break of day. The weapons were butcher knives and the method for fighting was for each man to submit his hand to his opponent and have one fincer cut off, the cutting to be done alternately, and the man who first evinced signs of pain was to be stabled to the heart. The Indian, by the toss, secured the first cut, and deliberately taking the hand of his enemy, with a quick stroke, severed his linger. The Mexican never uttered a sound. The Indian then reached out his hand, and off came his thumb. This continued in slience till the Mexican had lost four lingers and the Indian four, when the Indian again reached for his foe's left hand. The latter's econd, being frightened at the fearful flow of blood, sent a bullet through the Indiau's beart.

The offsit is one of the most barbarons and inhuman ever heard of in any land. All of the parties are well known. The Mexican will probably die.

Then I must levy on very thing in sight, "But I haven't $1200," responded Chambers. Then I must levy on bers said that he knew if Rowman. Chambers said that he knew if Rowman once entered the house he would get it without regard for the rights or lealings of any one. He (Chambers) then brought out a gun with the intention of hightening Rowman off the place. After ordering Garrett away, he told Bowman that he would give him three minutes to go off, "but he didn't move a muscle," said Chambers. "Then I saw him risks a motion with one hand, and it man and Garrett first came to the house. a muscer, said Chambers. Their I saw him makes motion with one band, and it occurred to me that if I did not shoot he would shoot me. My thought was of the terrilic Noagle affair, and the quickness with which a man could draw a pistol and shoot. My finger was on the trigger and I pulled it, and Bowman fell."

My finger was on the trigger and I pulled it, and Bowman fel!"

The prosecutor cross questioned Chambers so closely in regard to his financial dealings with Bowman that he lost his temper, and the spectators were treated to quite a sensation. "You were afraid Bowman would kill yn!?" asked the prosecutor.

"Ys." replied Chambers.

"Why?"

"Because he would do anything. He was the canneclest sooundre! I ever saw." As he said this. Chambers leaned forward in his chair and his face became hvid with rage. "Yes, sir!" he shouled, hoarsely, "such a d—d scoundre! as Bowman never

THE CAUSE OF THE DOCTOL'S DEATH

Physiciana Tes'He That It Hight Hav Been Due to Conjustion of the Brain or I ass of Blood.

Cureaco, Oct. 25 .- The taking of evidence on the identification was resumed in the Cronin case this morning. The identification is very perfect and very positive.

tion is very perfect and very positive.

The next matter taken up was the Inding of the body in the catch basin by two sower-eleaners, who notified the police of the fact. The policemen who were sent out and assisted in removing the body, were sworn as to this point, and described the proceedings. Lawyer Formattier the defence made the Lawyer Forrest for the defense, made the cross-examination on this head very searching and rigid. They were followed by Dr. Lowis, the dentist, who made a set o false teeth for Cronin. He identified the plate taken from Cronin's mouth as the one he had made. He said that a claf for another set, exactly fermines. fitted the dead man's mouth. A recess was then taken. At the afternoon session, Dr. Eghart stated the facts revealed by the entopsy, describ-ing the wounds at great length, and giving it as his opinion that death had resulted from them. Al of the wounds were on the head, but the shall was not broken, except nend, but the shall was not broken, except that a small piece of bone was chipped off at the corner of the corner of the corner of he left eye. The stomach and some o its contents were exhibited, and Dr. Eghert said that Cronin was illed within three hours offer having enten. The cross examination of Dr. Egbert d veloped the fact that none of the wounds were such as would neces-sarily cause d'ath. It was impossible, he admitted, to say whether the wounds were inflicted before or after death. If death had resulted from the skull wound it would, in required from to seem caused by concus-sion of the brain. The question was put to the doctor: "Is it not scientifically true that the physi-cians found no evidence in that body that were certain and conclusive of the cause of death F' Dr. Egbert replied: "That to true." He was of the opinion that death had accurred through excessive loss ood, but there was no certainty of it, he

Dr. Perkins, who assisted in the post mor tem, thought tl at death resulted from concuston of the I rain. That organ, however, was too much decomposed to afford any intormation.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Testimory of Michael Davist Continued:-The Money Collected in America. Lorpon, Oct 25 .- Michael Davitt resumed LONDON, Oce 29.—Michael Daylur resumen his address before the Farnell commission to day. He said the landlord system in Ireland should be abolished and the land yested in the state. | Right-tenths of the money which came from America for the support which came you America for the support of the Irish anne, he declared, came from Irish working hen and workingwomen. Davitt, con intung, said that Houston, secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic League, and his acco hiphees knew that the letters alleged to have been written by Parnell were siteged to have been written by Parnell were forgeries befere Pigott took the witness stand, and that it had cone to his (Davitt's) knowledge that Pigott con essed the fact prior to his estitying for the Time. On being Interrubted by Chief Justico Hannan, who said the commission would not accept the statement without cridence. Davitt replied that the allegation would again be made and proven later on.

Davitt proceeded to point out that Parnell, and not jue, formed the Land League in America. Le Barron he declared, had failed to prove the assertion that the Channa-Gael managed Parnell's tour in America. No money cellected in America had everbeen intended to be used to assist armed rebellion in Frebruch.

St Louis Globe Democrat
Colonel James M Thornton gave his opin ion as follows. The quality of courage in bittle I rega d as being, to a large extent, a physical stribute. I have heard a good deal, of talk allout the nonchalance of men in cetion and their case and composure after the first gun was fired but I never took much atook in it, i went through the war in the army, and t was in fortunato be in a portion of the veryice in Virginia, where there was a good deal of hard highting to do and there wisn't any vicilitable way to get out of it. good deaf of hard highting to do and there wisn't any reditable way to get out of it of her I saw service in twenty eight but ites and I can freely say that I for one never get 'used to it' I never went into a fight without it all pervising sense of danger, and wis always glad when it was over O' course moral cou age high putriotism and the military spirit kept the great in jority of men right up to the mirk, but there were notable instances of new whose physical natures rimply failed to respond when called on They gould not posseby, go into a fight. A rampy inner to respons when called on They could not possably 45 into a fight. A cear head and a full conception of the concinious co iscquences of cowardice to the maclyes fulled to stur them to the stay in point, and on the first white of a bullet takin signals of distress were visible to uil in south 50 miles.

A well known New York colonel a per feet gentlen an and scholar a patriot and a really notle fellow, way so weak in point of courage and his humilation so great at really being afraid to face dringer, that he was forced to retire from the army went to Weshingtor | incd as is and died in a few wreks | I knew shother promitent officer whose friends, out of consideration for his well known failing, used to man age on oic pretext or another to keep him out of engagements, and thus shield him from exposure Men like that are to be pitted—act blimed. They want to high that here to be a factually refuse to do that well.

HE WAS PLEASED

At the fair last night was one of the early settlers of the country, who had not visited Portisand since 182. As he entered the big Exposition building, and his eye took in the showing that Portland has been able to make for herself in this great fair, his mind wandered back to the time when he crossed the plains in the wake of a yoke of steers, with the cheeriess thought of friends left behind, and the not too entioning prospect of an unconquesed and unsettled country ahead. The center of altraction in the whole building to this one particular visitor was the display of the latest improved machinery in machinery half. He was particularly pleased with the fine showing of wood-working machinery made by Rusself & Co. the leading machinery dealers of the city. "Why," and the honest and venerable pioneer, "when I first settled in this far away land a rawed piece of immber was a novelty, and all the planing there was done was accomplished by and power; here fadney in a short time in any forcet, but here its also the admittoinal machinery for planing and frishing, this lumber in a manner that we early settlers accomplished only by the greatest expenditure of hand habot." Rusself & Co. this year make the only display of woodworking nashinery at the exposition, and they are the only firm in the city to-day that carry a full line of these grods censtantly in stock. This machinery includes all the latest improvements, and tiln the boast of the firm that they carry, nothing in stock but the eity.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

The contest for the speakership of the house of representatives is shaping itself out of the word. Of the five or six announced or the vote of the nve or six announces candidutes only two are to be taken seriously. The final test of strength is pretty sure to come between Reed and McKinley. Cannon wants to be chairman of the coprasition on appropriations and Browne of the ways.

and means Burrows wants the best second class chairmanship going. That is what the candidacy of these gentlemen implies. Can-non and Burrows will have considerable fol lowing in the West and Northwest enough and McKinley, though not enough to make either of them a formidable competitor to the two leaders. Reed and McKinley will divide between them, the votes of New Eug land, the middle Eastern states, Opio me the bouth, and each will have some scatter ing votes from the West at the begin ning They will be nearly equal in strength at the outset Reed leading in New England and New York, and Mckinley leadists but Reed is a protectionist from the point of view of the Eastern manufacturer and McKinley is a protection ist from the point of view of the Western producer. The point of view of the Western producer. The difference involved in this distinction, the divergence of these two points of view, is growing wider every day. The separation

Rastern and the Western protectional is constantly increasing. It was first clearly revealed in the prolonged debate on the Mills bill, in which McKinley took so prominent a part as the cham ion of West-ern rights and Western interests against the enforcement of a policy which would reduce the tariff at the expense of the firmer, the miner, the jumberman, the wool grower, the producer of row material everywhere in the West, and leave comparatively untouched

STEAMSHI'S AND TRADE

It is asserted by our free traders that our protect va system prevents us f om buting from South America therefore we can not hope that South America will buy from us The Providence Jennal say. The case is very simple. The people of South America will not buy from the United States unless they can sell to the United States but the people of South American can sell to the United States and they do se't tokbe to the Officer States and they do set to the United States very largely in excess of what they buy from the United States. In the year 1887 they sold to us goods valued at $78 G3 0°2 while they bought from us goods v tined at only $29,609 421.

Numercus clues have been run down, and a complete system of communication has been complete system of communication has been established with the sheriffs and constabulary of the different counties. In short, no stone has been left unturned to bring the guilty negro to justice, but Gibbs is still at large. He has cluded the officers of the law so successfully and has buffled their every attempt to locate him so completely, that the searchers are really mystified. The case thus for must go on the record of crime as another Tascott, or another Jack, the Ripper. It has the elements of mystery about it that pinces it in line with these remarkable cases which have puzzled the world.

The police are putting forth every effort to find Gibbs, and their inability to capture him only spurs them to greater activity.

His sales from in this city located at Nos. 188, 199 First street, occupy a 4 402200 feet, and the doing a business that reaches to all marts of socated at 10s, 128, 133 livist street, occupy a ground floor space, of 40x200 feet, and the building which be occupies here from cellar to garret is three stories high and is one of the flicest brick edifices in the city. His factory, together with the grounds, covers a space of 3½ acces, and it is one of the largest and most complete of the kind on the cost. Opened a year ego last July it is now running to its fullest capacity. From the sawmilt to the finishing room everything has been atranged here after Mr. Powers's own idea. The sawmilt, located on the banks of the Willametty river, accessible to either the small river circli or the largest ocean steamers, is 50x100 feet in size and has a cut-fling capacity of 20,000 feet of lumber per day. In a little more than a year since it was first opened Mr. Powers has sawed upwards of 400,000 feet of logs at this mill. He keeps a force of twelve men in this mill, which is run almost continuously. "Adjoining the sawmilt is a large dryhouse, 30x30 feet in size, with a storage capacity of 20,000 feet of lumber. This house is heated by steam furnished by a holier of 240 horse-power capacity. No lumber is ever allowed by Mr. Powers to pass hid his factory proper until it has been thoroughly dried and seasoned, and no furniture sold by this dealer has ever been known to warp or crack. All lumber placed in this driphouse is alsawed to stand for at least a week, and the drying is accomplished at a temperature that does not allow the warping or epititing of the boards. From the dryhouse the lumber, lully seasoned and ready for the hands of the furniture maker. The braining mill and machine shop combined is one of the furniture maker. The braining mill and machine shop to mill it is ready for the flushed hands of the furniture maker. The braining mill and mechine shop the machine shop the lumber is inst planed after which it is phased to the partment force the river which it is proved machinery for the making of furniture. Properties of all descriptions along the line of the Waverly Woodstock Ricctric Motor already feel the throb of Increased valuation and there is no doubt but what the future will be a repetition of past experience. There has been no available ground around the city that has been reached by these means of communication but has trebled and quadrupled in value. The projectors of Woodstock claim that they will have the finest and best equipped of all these roads with which Portland is supplied, and as a consequence that travel will naturally be diverted in that direction. Airendy the agents who are to handle this tract are dully besseled by parties who are desirons of securing first choice. The Telley & Steates Real Estate Company, 25 Stark street, will, through the columns of Tha Ofzooniax, in a few days make announcement of sale.

THE MOON S GLOGRAPHY

BY SIR ROBERT BALL

E are all naturally juclined to take an in terest in our neighbors We like to know who those are that live man ne and we are not in frequently curious to learn what we can about them In a somewhat larger sease and each state keeps a careful watch the proceedings of other states which he It is, therefore only reasonable that the inhabitions of this particular globe abould endeavor to become acquainted with the nature and circumstances of the other clobes above us and below us to our right and to our left Pspecally are we to search out all that we can about that one world which happens to be corput streety near us. The neighbor to which we refer is the moon Let us which we refer is the moon Let us compare her distance with that of some of the other heavenly bodies. The sun is for instance about 100 times us fur. Some of the platies do occasionally approach a hite closer that the sun but under all circum stances they remain at least 100 times as far as the moon. As to the stars, properly so-called they all he at distances almost in comparably more remote that the planets. You therefore see how justly, we may do sorthe the moon as our neighbor when it is compared with the other bodies of the universe. The relative distances of the number of the moon and the names of the distances of the moon and the names of the distances of the moon and the names of the they will be the content leavenly bedies from it's early. We thus have the opportunity of seeing the moon much more favorably than any of the other leavenly hodies. For it is obvious that the owner such are object is the bester we can observe it. A feature on the surface of a night that would be whelly invisible.

the affairs of the other towns in the vicinity, the other leaveni hodies. For it is obvious that the poarer such an object is the better we can observe it. A feature on the surface of a pianet that would be wholly invisible from our earth might neverthelees be large amough to show as a conspicuous object if it were placed on the moon.

But though the moon is so near us when compared with the other heavenly bodies, it is stil a very long way off when estimated by more ordinary standards. Under the most laborable circumstances, our neighbor is nearly a quarter of a million. Index may and when viewed from so great a distance objects havy to be of considerable magnitude if they are to be visible at all. A limar modulation even if it were as great as Mont Blanc itself would only be shown like a tiny hillock by our mightiest telescopes. No object on the moon could be seen unless it were at least as large as a town half or a catheleal. Were the Great Pyram of Egyl ton the moon it would only seem to us as a speck, which an artists who was making a sketch at the telescope would indicate by a do, with his pencil.

ing a skeich at the telescope would indicate by a do, with his pencil. In our study of the peography of the moon wo field, therefore not expect to see anything clearly except the broad features of its conserv. Here fortunately at enjoy an advantage which an atronomer who dwelt on the meon would not have if he ended to look at the earth. The surface of our globe is so extensively obscured by clouds that it would be very bird for a linnar inhabitant to obtain such a view of this globe as to gain any adequate idea of what its surface was really like here and there no doubtheringly get an occasional glimpse but it is uncertain to what extent a knowledge of the geography of the earth could be sage of the geography of the earth could be oblined by an examination, conducted from a point of view lying beyond our at mosphere. The moon strange to say, has no encompassing sheets of cloud, there is indeed little or no air there, and conse quently whenever our own sky will permit us to see through it there is no othersobstacle to our obtaining a clear view of the moon. There are certain spots or marks on the moon as seen with the numded eye with which every one is junitiar. They can be best observed when the moon is full and it is a rem whable fact that the features exhibited by the full moon are always the same face to us we are never granted a glimpse at the other side, and as to what that other side may be like neither I nor anyone else can give you the slightest information. The channeter of the moon is about 2000 miles. dge of the geography of the earth could
